

Wednesday 17th November

WALT: make predictions about a text

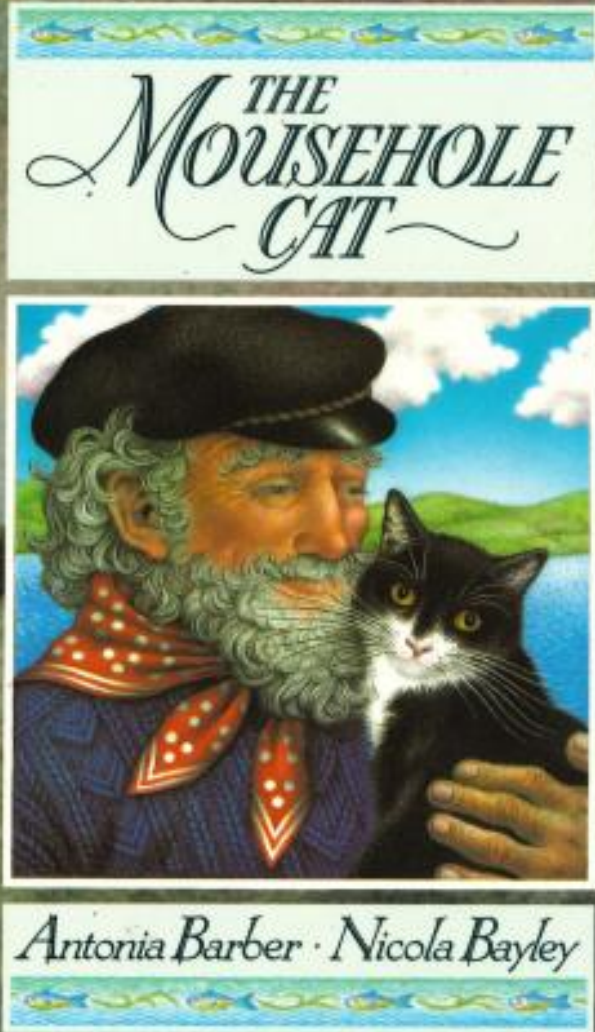

Words of the week

Cautious - taking care to avoid danger or trouble; careful.

The children were cautious as they entered the haunted house.

Anxious - feeling worried, nervous, or afraid about something uncertain.

She was anxious about starting a new school.

What is the title?

Who is the author?

What can you see?

What characters might be in the story?

Read the blurb – what are you thinking about the story now?

I predict that....

because.....

Question prompts to help with your prediction:

- What genre do you think the story is?
- Who are the characters and what might happen to them?
- Will the story have a happy ending or not? Why do you think this?
- Does this book remind you of other books you have read?

Thursday 18th November

WALT: understand story events

<https://www.stokebishop.bristol.sch.uk/wp-content/uploads/2020/07/The-Mousehole-Cat.pdf>

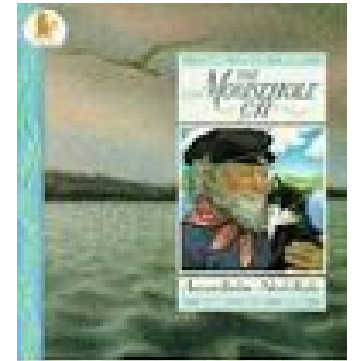

WALT: understand story events.

The Mousehole Cat

We listened to the next part of the story and then used drama to explore the events, and feelings and motives of the characters.

We used conscience alley to create a wave and sailed through it as Tom and Mowzer. We spoke as the Great Storm Cat within the wave.

Friday 19th November

WALT: create a story map to retell the Mousehole Cat