Long brown hair, hazel eyes and always chatting to my friends. That's me, Sarah Smith (although my friends call me Saz). I am nine years old and I live at home in Warwick with my Mum, Dad and annoying little sister Hayley.

Every day I get up and walk to school where I meet my friends in the playground. I go to Woodloes Primary School and I've just started Year 5, which is already so much fun!

When I'm not at school, I'm either on the swings with my friends in the park, or sat at home on my PlayStation. My favourite game is Hollow Knight, but as my mum always says, it's important to get a good balance of sunshine and fresh air too, which is why I like to read in the garden or play in the park.

My hobbies include playing the saxophone, Tae Kwon Do and Art. At the weekend I love drawing pictures of animals and I hope to go to Africa one day to draw a lion up close.
