

Year 2 Whole Class Reading 23.11.20

Narrative

gloomy (dismal, dark)

grog (alcohol)

trimmed (cut neatly)

anchoring
(hold firmly in place)

Visualise

Reading Warm up

He put on his eye patch and picked up his grog with the end of his hook.

What does this pirate look like? Can you imagine him?

Did your pirate look Something like this?

Predict

Reading Warm up

He put on his eye patch and picked up his grog with the end of his hook.

What will happen next?

Infer

Reading Warm up

He put on his eye patch and picked up his grog with the end of his hook.

Why did he pick up his grog with the end of his hook?

The Pirates Next Door
by Jonny Duddle

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=ZMAGHznKQVc>

Matilda lived in Dull-on-Sea, a gloomy seaside town - too busy in the summer...and in winter it shut down. There weren't too many kids around - just Tilda on her street. The lawns were mowed, the cars were washed, the hedges trimmed and neat. The house next door had been for sale since Tilda was a baby. She hoped a family would move in with a girl of her age or maybe... A boy! a PIRATE BOY! AHOY!

He had patched-up jeans, an EYEPATCH and a WOODEN-LEGGED dog!
And a PIRATE SHIP with TREASURE CHESTS and barrels full of GROG!
"We're the JOLLY-ROGERS! We'll be anchoring next door, We've sailed the seven seas but now we've had to come ashore."

Matilda lived in Dull-on-Sea, a gloomy seaside town - too busy in the summer...and in winter it shut down. There weren't too many kids around - just Tilda on her street. The lawns were mowed, the cars were washed, the hedges trimmed and neat. The house next door had been for sale since Tilda was a baby. She hoped a family would move in with a girl of her age or maybe... A boy! a PIRATE BOY! AHOY!

He had patched-up jeans, an EYEPATCH and a WOODEN-LEGGED dog!
And a PIRATE SHIP with TREASURE CHESTS and barrels full of GROG!
"We're the JOLLY-ROGERS! We'll be anchoring next door, We've sailed the seven seas but now we've had to come ashore."

Matilda lived in Dull-on-Sea, a gloomy seaside town - too busy in the summer...and in winter it shut down. There weren't too many kids around - just Tilda on her street. The lawns were mowed, the cars were washed, the hedges trimmed and neat. The house next door had been for sale since Tilda was a baby. She hoped a family would move in with a girl of her age or maybe... A boy! a PIRATE BOY! AHOY!

Retrieve

How many children lived on Tilda's street?

Infer

Why does Tilda want a girl of her age to move in next door?

1. Match these words to their meanings:

gloomy
rare impressed

to admire dark and dismal doesn't happen very often

2. Draw lines to match these items:

lawns
cars hedges

were washed were mown were trimmed

3.

The book tells us that...	True	False
Dull-on-Sea is too busy in the summer.	✓
There were lots of children in Tilda's street.
The house next door had been for sale for only a week.
Tilda wanted a family to move in next door.
Jim Lad's dog had a wooden leg.

The Pirates Next Door
by Jonny Duddle

Click here

Credits

reshot.com

pixabay.com

maxpixel.net

publicdomainpictures.net

flickr.com

commons.wikimedia.org

unsplash.com/license

pxhere.com

defense.gov

pexels.com/

Facebook: Whole Class Reading and more at The Teach Hub

Website: www.hubbardconsultancylimited.com

