Virtual Learning Activities

Year 4's daily virtual learning menu

Each day you need to:

1. Read for at least 30 minutes
2. English task (this will be shared daily on the website)
3. Maths task (this will be shared daily on the website)
4. Spellings task

There are spelling tasks for some days later in this PowerPoint.

When there is no set spelling task, continue to practise 10 words from your individual spellings list.

When you have learnt to spell all of the words, write 10 each day in sentences to show that you understand their meanings

In addition to your daily learning, you need to do at least one additional task each day:

- Complete a topic linked task (see list of suggested activities)

or

- Set yourself (and practise) a personal challenge

e.g. learn to tie your shoe laces, practise a new skill (e.g. sewing) or help to cook a dish.

- Go on a website to further your learning

E.g.

- Bitesize
- www.ictgames.com
- Daily 10 (<https://www.topmarks.co.uk/maths-games/daily10>)
- www.topmarks.co.uk (a range of ideas available for KS1 and KS2)
- www.hourofcode.co.uk (computing coding activities)

- World War II

Family Memories

Speak to adults at home, or phone / email relatives who live elsewhere.

Were any of your relatives alive during World War II? How old were they?
What can they remember?

Create a diary extract about one of their key memories.

Away from Home

Write a postcard home to your family telling them about your time as an evacuee. How would you have felt to be away from your parents?

Entertainment

Write an advert to persuade someone to listen to a song from World War II. What makes this a good song? Which instruments were played?

Write instructions to explain how to play a World War II game. How did you win?

Create a fact file about the toys that children played with during World War II.

The Royal Air Force

Find out about the aeroplanes that were used by the Royal Air Force during World War II.

You could:

draw a picture or a labelled diagram of an aircraft / create a fact file about the aircraft / build a model of an aircraft

World War II Vocabulary Glossary

As you learn about World War II, keep a note of any unusual vocabulary. Find out what these words mean and create a glossary.

Fact Files

Research an aspect of World War II that you find interesting.

Choose how you will present your work - as a leaflet, as a non-chronological report, as a PowerPoint presentation - or in another way.

You could research:

evacuees / rationing / schools / life at home in Britain during World War II / how women helped during World War II / any other topic about World War II that interests you

Food During World War II

Find out which foods were rationed during World War II. When did rationing start? Did rationing end as soon as the war ended?

Find a WWII recipe. Would you like to eat this food? Can you cook a recipe for your family to try?

During World War II, lots of families grew some of their own food. Can you grow something that your family could eat?

If you have any other ideas of learning linked to World War II, please do this instead!

read a book / create some art / make a model / sew, crochet or knit / learn to play a song

English task

Read the text about VE Day and then answer the questions.

VE Day

What is VE Day?

VE Day stands for Victory in Europe Day and is celebrated on 8th May. It was the end of six years of suffering, misery and courage during the Second World War in Europe. Although it was not the end of the Second World War, it was the end of warfare in Europe.

How did it happen?

On the morning of 7th May, 1945, following Hitler's death in the April, the German President of the Third Reich, Grand Admiral Donitz, gave orders that General Jodl should go to the American Head Quarters based in France. Jodl surrendered on behalf of the Germans, to the Western and Russian officers, and agreed to all their demands.

The Announcement

The British people began celebrating as soon as they heard the news. Although no official announcement had been made, bell ringers in the churches around the country, were on standby to ring out the good news when an official notice was given.

Joseph Stalin, the leader of the Russians, was taking his time to announce the surrender, but the British Prime Minister, Winston Churchill, did not want to give Stalin the chance to hold up what everyone already knew! Churchill made the following announcement at 19.40, 7th May.

"In accordance with arrangements between three great powers, tomorrow, Tuesday, will be treated as Victory in Europe Day and will be regarded as a holiday."

The Effects of War

In Britain, during the war in Europe, half a million homes were destroyed, thousands of ordinary people were killed and millions of lives had been torn apart.

VE Day

Did you know ...?

The three great powers were Britain, France and the Soviet Union, now known as Russia.

Bring on the Celebrations!

People began decorating the streets with banners, bunting and ribbons. They organised street parties where neighbours shared food, which was still rationed, and listened to the radio news broadcasts.

King George VI and the Queen appeared eight times on the balcony of Buckingham Palace, and their two daughters, Princess Margaret and Princess Elizabeth – who is now Her Majesty the Queen – walked amongst the crowds! Churchill told the crowds, "This is your victory!"

Churchill spoke to the nation, reminding them that although Japan still had to be defeated, and the war was not yet over, for now Great Britain "May allow ourselves a brief period of rejoicing. God Save the King!"

The End of the VE Day

At 21:00, King George VI made a final broadcast to the nation. Buckingham Palace was lit up in floodlights for the first time since the start of the war, and two searchlights formed a V, the sign of peace, above St Paul's Cathedral in London.

All the lights were turned off again the next day.

Although everyone was pleased the war in Europe had ended, for many the celebrations would have been a sad reminder of the loss of many loved ones. They would have been fighting abroad, caught by the enemy or died in air raids attacks. This meant that many did not completely feel the lasting joy of the time.

Questions

1. In detail, explain why the VE Day ended.

2. What did General Jodl do?

3. What does 'the bell ringers were on standby' mean?

4. Explain, in your own words, the effects of war in Europe, on Britain.

5. What did Stalin do, and how did this affect Britain?

6. What date was VE Day?

7. Name two ways people might have lost loved ones during the war in Europe.

8. Describe how people celebrated VE Day.

9. Why do you think the author has used an exclamation mark when commenting on the princesses walking around in the crowds in London?

10. Was this the end of the war? Explain your thoughts.

11. Why do you think two searchlights were lit in the shape of a V?

Answers

Can you find out more about the street parties people in Britain had to celebrate?

1. In detail, explain why the VE Day ended.
Answers will vary, based on: VE Day ended six years of suffering, misery and courage during the Second World War in Europe/ ended warfare in Europe.
2. What did General Jodl do?
General Jodl went to the Head Quarters based in France. He surrendered on behalf of the Germans, to the Western and Russian officers, and agreed to all their demands.
3. What does 'the bell ringers were on standby' mean?
The 'bell ringers were on standby' means the bell ringers were waiting to be told when they could all ring the church bells to let people know the good news.
4. Explain, in your own words, the effects of war in Europe, on Britain.
Answers will vary.
5. What did Stalin do, and how did this affect Britain?
Stalin took his time announcing the surrender, so this meant Churchill could not let Britain know officially that there was an end to the war in Europe.
6. What date was VE Day?
VE Day was Tuesday, 8th May 1945.
7. Name two ways people might have lost loved ones during the war in Europe.
Accept any two: fighting abroad, caught by the enemy or died in air raids attacks.
8. Describe how people celebrated VE Day.
People celebrated VE day by decorating the streets with banners, bunting and ribbons, and by having street parties, and sharing food.
9. Why do you think the author has used an exclamation mark when commenting on the princesses walking around in the crowds in London?
Answers will vary.
10. Was this the end of the war? Explain your thoughts.
No this was not the end of the war because Japan still needed to be beaten.
11. Why do you think two searchlights were lit in the shape of a V?
I think two searchlights were lit in the shape of a V as a sign of peace.

Captain Tom Gets Special Postmark for 100th Birthday

Who is Captain Tom Moore?

- Captain Tom Moore, 99, has raised almost £30 million for NHS Charities Together.
- He completed 100 laps of his garden before his 100th birthday on 30th April.

Captain Tom, the 99-year-old fundraising Second World War veteran, is 100 tomorrow. To celebrate, the Royal Mail says all post will have a special postmark this week.

Postmarks are printed on letters next to stamps. This one says, "Happy Birthday Captain Thomas Moore NHS Fundraising Hero 30th April 2020."

David Gold, from Royal Mail, said, "What Captain Thomas Moore has achieved is truly phenomenal, and this is reflected in the affection shown for him across the world."

Captain Tom became famous for walking around his garden 100 times to raise money for the NHS Charities Together. He wanted to finish the challenge before his 100th birthday.

Captain Tom wanted to show support for NHS workers as they help those affected by COVID-19. Starting in early April, he completed ten laps a day of his 25-metre garden. He did his 100th lap on live television on 15th April.

At first, Captain Tom set himself the target of raising £1000. However, he inspired so many people that this target was soon overtaken! He has now raised almost £30 million for charity.

Ellie Horton, from NHS Charities Together, said they were "humbled by Captain Tom and what he's achieved."

Tom has continued to be in the news. He released a song with the singer Michael Ball. It's called 'You'll Never Walk Alone' and it reached number 1 in the UK charts. He's the oldest man to achieve this! All the money for the song will go to the NHS Charities Together.

Many people have been sending him cards and presents ahead of his birthday. He's already received over 100 000 cards! The Queen will send Captain Tom a personal message for his birthday. Other members of the royal family have also praised Captain Tom. Prince William called him, "a one-man fundraising machine."

As Captain Tom celebrates his birthday, who knows what he will do next?

English Task - Write Newspaper Report

Use your plan from yesterday to write your very own newspaper report describing the events on VE Day. You can decide the name of your newspaper and what you focus on for your report, are you interviewing people at a street party, a soldier coming home from war or Winston Churchill the prime minister?

Use the checklist to help you.

Challenge: Read over your report to check your spelling and punctuation. Can you improve on any of the words you included using a thesaurus?

Happy VE Day!

Today's activities are optional as it is a national holiday but we have included some VE Day suggestions for you.

-  You could plan your very own VE Day party at home
-  Maybe you would like to try some WWII recipes?
-  You could make a VE Day banner or poster
-  You could dress in 1940s war time clothes
-  Listen to some wartime music
-  How about trying to learn a dance from the time like the Lindy Hop?

We would love to hear how you celebrated VE Day so please send us in pictures of what you did at home!
